

Business News

Aalborg University Business School
February 2023

NORTH JUTLAND'S CO2 AMBITIONS REQUIRE MORE WELDERS AND ELECTRICIANS

If North Jutland is to be Denmark's capital for the capture, storage and use of carbon dioxide (CO₂), the region will need significantly more skilled welders and electricians. Read the story at aau.dk. NB in Danish.

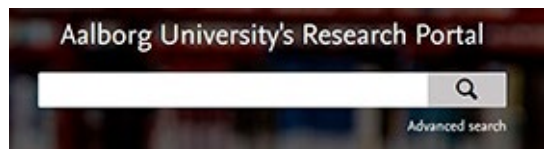

NYHEDER

HEAD OF BUSINESS SCHOOL'S NEWS

Watch a recording of the department coffee meeting at Aalborg University

BOOST YOUR RESEARCHER PROFILE

A course for researchers who wish to explore the system-based possibilities to

Business School on February 2.

raise their profile. Date: April 4.

RESEARCH PROJECT FOCUSES ON ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN DENMARK

The project examines why some areas in the country have more entrepreneurs than others. The Carlsberg Foundation has granted DKK 1.2 million to the project. NB in Danish.

NEW BOOK BY METTE VINTHERR LARSEN

Get an insight into the strategic priorities that clothing and textile companies undertook during the corona pandemic. NB in Danish.

FUNDING: DIGITALLEAD COLLABORATION PROJECTS

Projects based on the latest knowledge within digital technologies that translate knowledge into growth and concrete solutions. Application deadline: March 1.

CALL: OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE ELECTION

[If you wish to stand for election, please write to Head of Business School \[head@business.aau.dk\]\(mailto:head@business.aau.dk\). Closing date for nominations: March 12.](#)

STUDENT ORGANISED A SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

The purpose of the "Denmark and the World" seminar at AAUBS was to provide students with project opportunities and train them in organising a high-level seminar.

THE 20TH MOST CITED EXPERT IN DENMARK

Per Nikolaj Bukh ranks number 20 on Akademikerbladet's list of Danish media's 50 most cited experts in 2022. NB in Danish.

FOR PHD STUDENTS: COURSE IN THEORY BUILDING

A course that aims to acquaint PhD students with the process of theorizing and theory building. Date of the course: May 22-26.

FUNDING: DANISH FOUNDATION FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP

New funding opportunity for researchers. Universities can apply for up to DKK 150.000 per project. Application deadline: March 23.