

LIVE-STREAM LECTURE ON TEAMS

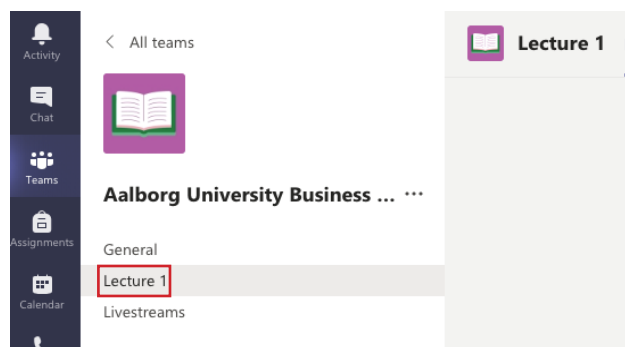

(Step 1) - Open Teams

1. If you have a link. The link will open a browser page and ask you to allow opening Teams. Click on allow, this will open the right page/channel in Teams. Now, skip step two and three and move directly to step four.
2. If you have a room. Open Teams and go to step two.

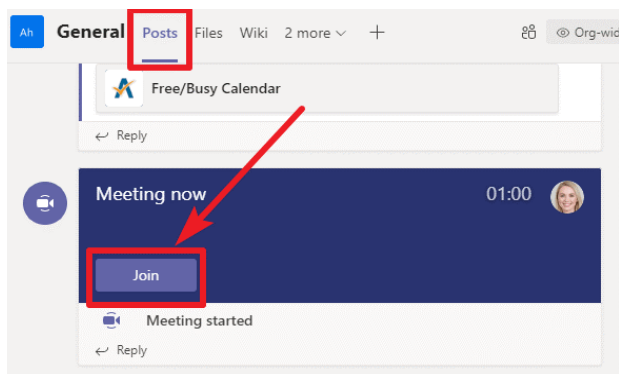

(Step 2) - In the 'TEAMS' tab click on the team you want to continue with.

The group/channels (your teams) you have joined will appear here. When you enter the group through a link first time, the group will be saved in here, for you to find it easily.

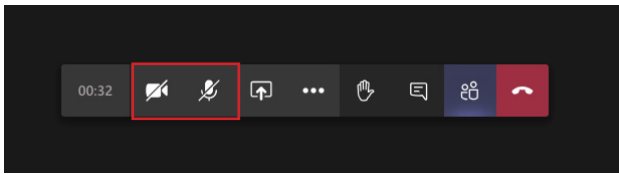

(Step 3) - Click on the team (group) you want to enter and thereafter on the channel you want to continue with.

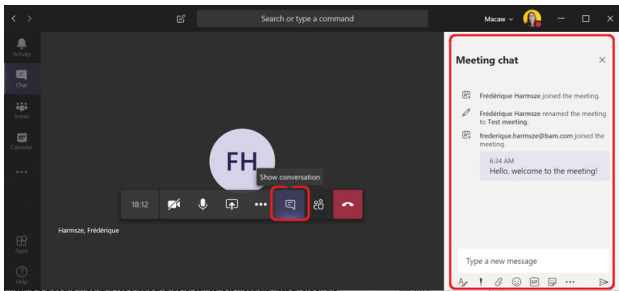

(Step 4) - When a lecture meeting is open, you will see a purple post (meeting now) in the 'POSTS' tab. click 'JOIN' to join the lecture.

Remember to turn-off your camera and mute your microphone.

Click on the 'Conversation' tab to see and/or write questions in the chat window on the right side.

In the beginning of the class the lecturer will present how/when remote students' questions will be answered.
