

BUSINESS NEWS

AAU BUSINESS SCHOOL
SEPTEMBER 2020

AALBORG UNIVERSITY HAS A NEW BUSINESS SCHOOL

AAU Business School officially opened September 1 2020 with a live debate on the importance of a business school in a Northern Jutlandic and international context. See photos from the event (text in Danish).

NYHEDER

HEAD OF BUSINESS SCHOOL'S NEWS

News from Head of Business School Christian Nielsen September 2020.

SUSI BÆRENTZEN DEFENDED PHD

NEWS FROM THE RESEARCH GROUPS

Short news from the research groups at AAU Business School.

FINANCE RESEARCH SEMINARS

Susi defended her thesis "Effectiveness of General Anti-Avoidance rules. The Challenges, Limits and Potentials of General Anti-Avoidance Rules".

COMPANIES' WORKFORCE CHANGES WHEN EMPLOYEES HELP TO HIRE NEW COLLEAGUES

New research: Inclusion of workers in decision-making processes tends to remove skilled jobs, and in combination with the introduction of new technology, inclusion also creates work for the highly educated \(text in Danish\).

AAUBS IS NOW ON TWITTER

Aalborg University Business School now has an official profile on the social media Twitter. You can find the profile on this address: <https://twitter.com/businessaau>.

The virtual seminars are a research collaboration through the establishment of a Finance Research Consortium. See the upcoming seminars fall 2020.

PHD DEFENCE BY DAVID FERNÁNDEZ GUERRERO

Subject of the lecture: Dynamics of industry-university collaboration across metropolitan and non-metropolitan / peripheral regions. NB. Due to the Covid-19 situation David Fernández Guerrero will defend his thesis digitally via Microsoft Teams.

SERVICE DAY SUPPORT

The business school administration provides services to research groups who choose to hold meetings and seminars on specific dates. See dates and guidelines.

Editor: Torben Haugaard Jensen
Mail: thj@business.aau.dk

BUSINESS SCHOOL
AALBORG UNIVERSITY